

ROYAL SUNDAY's CLUB BRUSSELS

15th and 16th March, 2008

21st international Sunday's Club competition Artistic Free Skating

Rules

Art 1: International Sunday's Club competition for artistic free skating is organised by the Royal Sunday's Club of Brussels

Art 2: The competition is allowed for individual skaters only (ladies and men), for members affiliated to a national federation and invited by the organisers.

Art 3: The competition exists in two parts for cadets-youth-juniors-seniors
1) short program (according to the CEPA compulsory elements)
2) long program (according to the CEPA rules)

Art 4: categories (CEPA rules!!!)

- Minis: cfr 2008 CEPA rules for Cup of Europe
- Espoirs: cfr 2008 CEPA rules for Cup of Europe
- Cadets: cfr 2008 CEPA rules international competitions and championships
- Youth: cfr 2008 CEPA rules international competitions and championships
- Juniors: cfr 2008 CEPA rules international competitions and championships
- Seniors: cfr 2008 CEPA rules international competitions and championships

In all categories a maximum of 3 skaters per category per invited club are allowed.

Art 5: The organising club owns the right to change the number of participants in the different categories.

Art 6: Music individual CD's and K7 with name, club and category of the participant (1 for the short program and 1 for the long program).

The organisers decline all responsibility in case of accidents as well for skaters as for officials and accompanying persons.

Rink : Covered - synthetique coating - Dimension 38m x 18m

Entry fee : 16,00 € each participant, no matter which category, to be paid at your arrival on the venue

Award : the first classified in each category will receive the 21st International Sunday's Club Trophy (cup). All other participants will receive a souvenir.